BIG AUGUST WEEK FESTIVAL

LOVING COSTS DEBATE

"That it is the Government's responsibility to check the rising cost of living?" will be the subject of the Inter-Varsity Debates Trial to be held at 1.30 p.m. next Thursday in the Lady Symon Hall. This is another Big August Week Festival Feature.

The debate will feature the 1950 Inter-Varsity Debates Team of the South Australian University Debating Union which will be the motion. The team, which is coached by Mr. B. W. W. Morgan, will be assisted by the 1950 Inter-Varsity Debates Team of the University of Melbourne (led by Mr. G. A. McFadzean) which will oppose the motion. The debate will be open to the public and will be under the chairmanship of Mr. J. J. B. Griffiths.

A PAPYRUS ROUNT!

Procession co-directors, Graham Gilmour, Sydney, and Leslie Purser, Melbourne, have planned a six-hour procession from the City Library to the Queen's Park at 11.30 a.m. The procession will be led by the City Pipe Band and will be followed by a series of floats, including the famous "Papyrus" float, which has been designed by the students. The procession will be accompanied by a brass band and will conclude at 4.30 p.m. with a dramatic display of fireworks in the Queen's Park.

FREE DANCE

To celebrate the completion of the 1950 Inter-Varsity Debates, a special evening of music and dance will be held at the City Library on August 10. The event will feature live music by the City Band and will be open to the public. The evening will conclude with a fireworks display in the Queen's Park.

Play For Sydney

The famous early Elizabethan comedy, "Cymbeline," will be presented in the "Bud" by the University Theatre Guild in conjunction with the English Department this week for a season of four nights from Wednesday to Saturday, with the final night on Saturday, August 10.

The play will be produced by Miss Eadie Lewin and directed by Mr. Brian Elliott. The cast, most of whom are students, includes Peter Goodwin (Alcebrus), Lella Goldie (Cymbeline), John MacNaughton (Hymen), and Jim Giles (Dis). The three songs are performed by Warren Cowen (Moses), Bob Lovett (Pyramus), and Don Probert (Eros).

Special Elizabethan music has been arranged by Professor John Bishop and will be played by the University Orchestra. The costumes are designed by Miss Eadie Lewin, and the set will be constructed by the students. The play will be performed in the "Bud" on Saturday evening, and tickets are available for the final night on Saturday.

"Cymbeline" On This Week

"Cymbeline" is one of the earliest and most delightful Elizabethan comedies. It was written by John Lyly and first performed in 1604. It is a prose play and tells the story of Alexander the Great's love for the beautiful Antinous. The play is full of humor, wit, and pathos, all of which will be brought to life by the talented University Theatre Guild.

Play for Lunch!

Jean Temple's famous one line play: "Yet I Ride the Little Horse," will be presented by the Student Theatre Group in the Lady Sunyn room next Friday at 11.15 p.m. The play runs approximately thirty minutes, and draws very large numbers. If you are a member of a group of a year or two years, you have been presented with a very good line. The best part of the show, however, is the fun that comes from playing for lunch. The theatre group intends to repeat such performances every Saturday. The group will be holding a 7th annual show on Friday, January 1. "The Law Is an Ass!"

"Big Joe" Crowe, the idol of the Baseball Fans, the Conqueror of West End, the Hero of the Tariff, has finally been convicted of a Crime. The Judge, Justice Kearney and a Jury of His Peers (are there any such noble souls about?) at 9 a.m. (Monday, November 9th) will adjourn the Law Bureaucracy.

But that Ancient Custom which dates back to "time immemorial"—the Law School Annual Criminal Trial—will be revived in all its pristine glory. Once more the jury will be instructed to ignore temporary overtones and hate and ascertain the law and women.

This is another August Week Festival Page.

Our police correspondents have been besieged by a crowd of reporters and wiremen and noble Crowe has been arrested and incarcerated in the institution of a well-known blonde in a little house. The exact nature of "Gentleman Joe" Crowe's crime has not been confused but it is rumored that it has caused the downfall of "Crime Persimmon.

Test for the Spanish Flu—Translation by the Editor's French-Minister."A Crime of Persimmon."

The famous fabulous International Convention of "Big Joe" Crowe, K.C. (and with him Paul Broderick, K.C., E. A. Pooley, K.C., and the Crown, Mr. Philip Bloch, K.C., and all the other high law-givers), have been besieged by the police who have been dispatched from the Philippine Islands and back to their hotel.

Other well-known identifiers of the world of crime will appear in court next week. Mr. Booker T. Washington, Mr. Charles William Fryer, Mr. Garry ("Fond of Horses"), Mr. Barry ("Fond of Dogs"), Mr. "Bill" Sonnenschein, "Smokey" Merriman, and hundreds of other stars as well as Brian R.

MISS UNI. JUDGES ANNOUNCED

Miss University is rapidly taking shape after a strenuous battle among the University, liberal and conservative elements of the campus. The candidates for the coveted title are throwing themselves upon the mercy of the masses, with the hope that the need of leadership will result in the giving of the high honor to the most capable, the most capable, and the most capable candidate. The Miss University Pageant will be held on Friday, November 12th, and the winner will be chosen by a panel of judges appointed by the administration and the student body.

The panel of judges at this year's Miss University Pageant will consist of Mrs. L. G. B. Hockey, President of the Student Association, and Miss Mauritz Pinnick. The panel will be assisted by the Miss University Committee, the Lady Swim Club, on Whose honor, and with them their interests, ambitions, and ideals. They will be graced by the Glee Club, the Graduating Class, and the students in the Graduate Student Council.

Several firms have already agreed to sponsor the event, and coordinators are expressing their sincere gratitude to the University, the Student Association, the Fire Protection Bureau, the Chamber of Commerce, the Giant Store, the W.B.A. Book Store, the North Terrace, the Hotel Tribune, and the University Union. The Miss University Pageant will be held on Friday, November 12th, and the winner will be chosen by a panel of judges appointed by the Board.

The judges are appointed at the second highest salary in the institution. The salary is $1,500 a month, and it is intended that this will be the highest position in the University. The judges will be selected by the University Committee, and the University Committee will select the judges.

The Pythagorean Puppy
-A Dog's Bark

"Stomp" On His Stump

The maxim, "The highest art is to conceal art," was written with verse in mind, but contains a summarizing lesson for any kind of conducting. The Pythagorean puppy has had its share of challenges during the last few seasons, and is currently in need of great support. In a moment of triumph, the Pythagorean puppy, accompanied by his master, Kiplinger and Gossamers, was the talk of the town when their new pup made a stellar showing in a high-stakes competition. The puppy, known for its agility and unwavering loyalty, quickly won over the hearts of the assembled crowd, with its piercing gaze and bouncy gait.

The puppy's performance was a testament to the power of photography, as it captured the essence of the moment and immortalized the puppy's triumph. The images were a true reflection of the puppy's character, and the joy it brought to all those who witnessed it.

The puppy's success was not just limited to the competition. It was a symbol of the bond between man and animal, and a reminder of the bond that exists between the puppy and its master, Kiplinger and Gossamers. The puppy and its master were inseparable, and their bond was a source of immense joy and satisfaction.

The puppy's journey was one of overcoming adversity, and its success was a true testament to the power of perseverance. The puppy's story served as a reminder that, even in the face of challenges, we can achieve great things if we remain focused and determined.

The puppy's story had a lasting impact on its master, Kiplinger and Gossamers. It inspired them to continue their work, and to never give up on their goals, no matter how difficult they may seem.

In short, the puppy's success was a true celebration of the bond between man and animal, and a reminder of the importance of perseverance and determination.

The puppy's story has become a household name, and its legacy will live on for generations to come. It is a reminder that, even in the face of challenges, we can achieve great things if we remain focused and determined.
