FORTHCOMING PRODUCTIONS, 1953

It is hoped to stage five major productions. Following "Juno and the Paycock," "The Cocktail Party" (T. S. Eliot) will be produced in the third week of May. Later, "Fireworks in the Morning" (Alex Symons), and "A Comedy of Good and Evil" (Richard Hughes). The fifth play is still to be selected. Dates of these productions will be announced well in advance.
UNIVERSITY THEATRE GUILD

MEMBERSHIP

The Theatre Guild is a private theatre and admission to all performances is by presentation of the Membership Vouchers at the door for unreserved seats, or by exchanging vouchers at Allan's Ltd. Box Office for reserved seats.

The Guild is precluded from selling seats at the door of The Hut, or elsewhere, under any circumstances whatever.

SUBSCRIPTIONS, 1953

Single Membership - - - - £1 1 0
Single Undergraduate Membership - - 10 6

Single Membership provides for admission for one person only to each production.

Double Membership - - - - 1 15 0
Double Undergraduate Membership - - 1 1 0

Double Membership provides for admission for two persons to each production.

The Guild particularly requests that Single and Double Ordinary Subscriptions be paid at Allan's Ltd. Box Office, Rundle Street, Adelaide, but they may be paid at The Hut on the night of a performance and the voucher, or vouchers, can then be presented for an unbooked seat or seats.

Undergraduate Subscriptions must be paid to Miss Lower, Secretary to the Guild, inside the rear door of the Elder Conservatorium.

Pro-rata membership will be available to those joining after the first production, the rate of subscription depending on the number of productions remaining to be staged.

Please note a departure from the 1952 procedure: Vouchers for seats may be used only for the production shown on the voucher. Thus, single membership entitles admission for one person only to each production; double membership to two persons only to each production.
