Fireworks in the Morning

AT THE HUT

28th JULY, 29th JULY, 30th JULY, and 31st JULY, 1953
No Comedy was staged in the old time
But had a Prologue spoke from the boards in rhyme
The rival poets, beaux and belles to appease,
Placate the pit and swear it sought to please.
Now times are changed; the Prologue's out of date,
Yet still your Author seeks to deprecate.
How dare he so profane, he's asked, the stage
Where characters from Eliot's high-brow page,
Antigone, and Juno's tragic brood
Trod yesterday, with home-made Fireworks crude
To illuminate a Ruritanian tale
Which in such company can seem but stale?
And yet . . . and yet we venture to suggest
At least our Play will give your nerves a rest:
Frustration won't chalk bad words on your door,
There'll be no convicts, nor the provincial lore
So oft our Playwrights feel they must explore . . .
A scrap of satire with a laugh or two
Are the plain fare that we now offer you;
And if to be "escapist" is the offence,
We hope you'll feel it is escape to sense.
Fear not! With zest the Guild will soon return—
Back to those lofty heights for which we know you burn!

The University Theatre Guild wishes to thank PERIOD
AND ART FURNISHERS for the loan of period furniture used in Acts II and III.

BACK-STAGE HELPERS

Much work has to be done before and during performances of a play by the "back-stage" staff. This work is in its way as important, and to some is as interesting, as any work in the theatre.

The Committee of the Guild would be pleased to hear from any able-bodied person who would like to assist behind the scenes in the production of plays—particularly in connection with the design, building and handling of stage sets and scenery.

Those interested are asked to write to Miss E. J. Humphries, Hon.
Secretary to the Guild, Arts Building, University.

FORTHCOMING PRODUCTIONS

The declared aim of the Guild is the enjoyment and furtherance of the arts of the Theatre, one of which, as is stated in the Guild's constitution, is Ballet. Accordingly, the Committee is happy to be able to announce that the Guild's next production—the fourth of the year—will be an evening of ballet. Three new ballets will be presented by Joanne Priest in the Hut in September. Members will be informed by circular of the actual date.

The play selected for the Fifth Production will be announced shortly.

MEMBERSHIP OF UNIVERSITY THEATRE GUILD

The Theatre Guild is a private theatre and admission to all performances at the Hut is by presentation of the Membership Vouchers at the door for unreserved seats, or by exchanging vouchers at Allan's Ltd. Box Office for reserved seats.

The Guild is precluded from selling seats at the door of The Hut, or elsewhere, to non-members. This is not due to any rule of the Guild, but to circumstances quite beyond its control.
