CONCERNING PEOPLE.

The Chief Justice (Sir Samuel Way) was re-elected by the Melbourne bar to the bench of the Supreme Court of Victoria. He is a member of the University, and a departmental car was placed at his disposal. Among those present were many friends of the late judge, including family members, personal friends, and representatives of the many institutions with which Sir James was associated. Those included Mr. Justice Gordon, Mr. Justice Murray, Mr. Justice Buchanan, and Commissioner Russell, representing the judiciary; Sir John Downer, K.C.; Mr. Richards, and Mr. Angus Parsons, M.P., the Barristers, E. B. Girdwood, K.C. (Pro Grand Master), P. E. Cormack (Deputy Grand Master), and A. Glover (Grand Secretary), the Masonic fraternity; and Dr. Barlow, C.M.G., (Vice-President of the University), and Professor Stirling, C.M.G., the University. Other present were the Mayor of Adelaide, Mr. A. A. Simpson, the Federal Treasurer (Sir John Forrest), Sir John Young, Mr. Justice Meagher, Mr. Moses Howard, Col. E. E. Bech, Dr. J. C. Vero, the Hon. John Lewis, M.L.C., and Missionaries of the Church of England in South Australia, and L. D. S. Prior to the departure of the train, Sir James made some remarks to the press, and expressed a hope that he might be able to attend a few meetings during the course of his visit. He left to arrive at London on May 14, leaving a strong impression on his journey by his amiability, and Chief Justice (Sir James) was welcomed by the press.
