The Advertiser

in the vicinity of the magnetic pole. But by his Excellency Sir the Governor of the South Australian Company, the founder of the...""

FACILITIES FOR THE AURORA.

THE CAPTAIN'S APPRECIATION.

Captain Davis, who had charge of the Aurora, very much appreciated the facilities provided for him by the marine authorities and the prompty, all his requirements with regard to housing, cooking, etc..."

DISCOVERIES BY THE AURORA.

SUBMARINE BANKS.

In addition to the exploratory work described, a large number of important observations have been made by the ship of the Aurora and the marine geologist has been able to carry out his investigations on the subject of the "Discovery by the Australian"..."

Captain J. K. Davis, of Dr. Mawson's Australian Antarctic ship Aurora, has reported the observation of a large number of submarine banks..."

Universal European Interest.

Further to the object of the expedition, the scientific and biological pursuits were also of considerable interest to the world. The Aurora's voyage is a matter of great importance to the study of the geology, geography, and the..."

GREETINGS IN THE RIVER.

CHEERS FROM OTHER SHIPS.

As soon as Dr. Gething had awarded the Captain T. B. Richardson steered the Aurora towards the cotton wharf. By 4 p.m., the vessel was in the channel, and the various steamer and paddle-steamers..."

OBJECTS OF THE EXPEDITION,

A REPRESENTATIVE PARTY

LIFE IN ADELAIDE LANDING.

AN INTERESTING RETROSPECT.

Dr. Mawson's services in the Shackleton expedition, and his later work in the Antarctic, are well known. Dr. Mawson was..."

In the early morning of the 2nd of January, 1912, the Aurora left the islands, and after a..."

Features of the Aurora.

The Aurora looked surprisingly trim after two years' absence in the waters of Australia, and was smooth and polished, as the result of its continuous steaming at all hours of the day and night..."

Eleven Dogs Brought Back.

Eleven dogs used by the expedition were brought back to the Antarctic. They were lively and healthy, and were placed in the hold of the Aurora. Modern knowledge has lent a new dimension to the..."

Macquarie Island Party.

Mr. H. B. Shenton, the leader of the Macquarie Island party, said—"We left the island in the Aurora on November 23, and the Aurora, after reaching the..."

Macquarie Island.

There we heard all the news of the world, and the Aurora was..."

OBJECTS OF THE EXPEDITION.

A REPRESENTATIVE PARTY

LIFE IN ADELAIDE LANDING.

AN INTERESTING RETROSPECT.

Dr. Mawson's services in the Shackleton expedition, and his later work in the Antarctic, are well known. Dr. Mawson was..."