LATEST RHODES SCHOLAR.

Mr. A. W. Morey Chosen.

Mr. Alan Wilson Morey, of Buxton street, North Adelaide, was chosen by the Rhodes Scholarship Selection Committee, which met at Government House on Friday morning, as the latest scholar to proceed to Oxford University. Mr. Morey was born on March 1, 1890, and had a most successful career at the school. In 1897, he entered King's School, and proceeded to Torrens House, and thence to Queen's School, where, in 1907, he was first place in the examination for the University of Adelaide, and subsequently to the University of Oxford.

UNIVERSITY OF ADELAIDE.

EXAMINATION RESULTS.

Ordinary University for the Degree of Bachelor of Music.

The examinations for the year 1913 were concluded, and the following results were obtained:

First Class, Music:
1. Mr. A. W. Morey.
2. Mr. G. W. Paton.
3. Mr. W. G. Paton.

The second class included:-
Mr. A. W. Morey.
Mr. G. W. Paton.
Mr. W. G. Paton.

THE RHODES SCHOLAR.

Mr. A. W. Morey Selected.

After a three-weeks' sitting at Government House on Friday, the Rhodes scholar selection committee appointed Mr. Alan Wilson Morey, of Buxton-street, North Adelaide, and subsequently to the University of Oxford.

Mr. Morey was born on March 1, 1890, and received his education at King's School, and subsequently to the University of Oxford.

The Register, Dec. 16th, 1913.

FARM ATTENDANCE PAYS.

In the following year he also passed in five subjects in the University of Adelaide, and in 1911 he was first in the University of Oxford for the degree of Bachelor of Music.

The Register, Dec. 16th, 1913.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

UNIVERSITY COMMEMORATION.

The University of Adelaide will hold its annual Commemoration on Thursday afternoon, December 13th. The Chancellor, Dr. Samuel Way, will preside, and the University will be represented by Mr. J. P. A. Sibley.

The Register, Dec. 16th, 1913.