LEFT IN THE ICE.

DR. MAWSON'S EXPEDITION.

THE BOATSWAIN'S STORY.

Down in the south polar regions Dr. Mawson's expedition would be taken off by the Aurora, which is now on its way out. Dr. Mawson has been in Antarctica for three years prosecuting his investigations and exploring the unknown country. In previous trips he and six other men were left behind owing to the stormy weather which prevailed. On Thursday one of the men was interviewed by a representative of the Register, and in a brief interview he spoke many of the experiences which occurred on the previous voyage of the Aurora. On December 26, 1919, he began, "We left Hobart for the south to pick up the explorers,是真的..." 但文章被切掉了。
