THE PARLIAMENT.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 29.

The President (Hon. Sir Lancefield Stirling) took the Chair, and announced that the Council was now in order, and asked the Speaker to move a resolution regarding the adjournment of the University Council.

The President moved the resolution, and it was seconded by Mr. Wallis, who said that he had been informed that the University Council was to be adjourned for a month, and that the motion was necessary to prevent the Council from being in session during the holiday period.

The motion was carried, and the Council adjourned until Thursday, November 2.

THE EDUCATION COMMITTEE.

In consequence of the University's examiners' List, a general adjournment of the Legislative Council was given on Thursday, November 2, instead of November 14.

ORCHESTRAL CONCERT.

Mr. T. B. Merrick reported to the Trades and Labour Council last night that the committee appointed in connection with the formation of a Women's Educational Association had met and drawn up a constitution. This would be printed and circulated among all the women's organizations throughout the State. They would be asked to appoint delegates to consider the constitution and to vote upon it in due course.

EDUCATION OF THE WORKERS.

Mr. T. B. Merrick reported to the Trades and Labour Council last night that the committee appointed in connection with the formation of a Women's Educational Association had met and drawn up a constitution. This would be printed and circulated among all the women's organizations throughout the State. They would be asked to appoint delegates to consider the constitution and to vote upon it in due course.

The motion was carried, and the Council adjourned until Thursday, November 2.

THE EDUCATION COMMITTEE.

In consequence of the University's examiners' List, a general adjournment of the Legislative Council was given on Thursday, November 2, instead of November 14.

Mr. T. B. Merrick reported to the Trades and Labour Council last night that the committee appointed in connection with the formation of a Women's Educational Association had met and drawn up a constitution. This would be printed and circulated among all the women's organizations throughout the State. They would be asked to appoint delegates to consider the constitution and to vote upon it in due course.

Mr. T. B. Merrick reported to the Trades and Labour Council last night that the committee appointed in connection with the formation of a Women's Educational Association had met and drawn up a constitution. This would be printed and circulated among all the women's organizations throughout the State. They would be asked to appoint delegates to consider the constitution and to vote upon it in due course.