THE EDUCATION COMMISSION REPORT

ADOPTION MOVED BY MR. CONEYBEERE

AN INFORMATIVE SPEECH

ON THE EDUCATION SYSTEM

The Advertiser
November 25th, 1913

EDUCATION COMMISSION.

Mr. CONEYBEERE moved:—"That the report of the Royal Commission on Education adopted by the late Mr. Alfred Williams, had been dealing with a comprehensive educational report to make reference to the deficiencies in primary education of young people of this State. He referred to the efforts of the late Mr. Alfred Williams. They all remembered the educational facilities of the country were being done enough in the way of educational and technical education, and that was a matter by no means by which to be dealt with at a later stage. Mr. Coneybeere went on to continue his remarks on October 28.

Mr. Coneybeere moved:—That the report of the Royal Commission on Education adopted by the late Mr. Alfred Williams, had been dealing with a comprehensive educational report to make reference to the deficiencies in primary education of young people of this State. He referred to the efforts of the late Mr. Alfred Williams. They all remembered the educational facilities of the country were being done enough in the way of educational and technical education, and that was a matter by no means by which to be dealt with at a later stage. Mr. Coneybeere went on to continue his remarks on October 28.

Mr. Coneybeere moved:—That the report of the Royal Commission on Education adopted by the late Mr. Alfred Williams, had been dealing with a comprehensive educational report to make reference to the deficiencies in primary education of young people of this State. He referred to the efforts of the late Mr. Alfred Williams. They all remembered the educational facilities of the country were being done enough in the way of educational and technical education, and that was a matter by no means by which to be dealt with at a later stage. Mr. Coneybeere went on to continue his remarks on October 28.

Mr. Coneybeere moved:—That the report of the Royal Commission on Education adopted by the late Mr. Alfred Williams, had been dealing with a comprehensive educational report to make reference to the deficiencies in primary education of young people of this State. He referred to the efforts of the late Mr. Alfred Williams. They all remembered the educational facilities of the country were being done enough in the way of educational and technical education, and that was a matter by no means by which to be dealt with at a later stage. Mr. Coneybeere went on to continue his remarks on October 28.

Mr. Coneybeere moved:—That the report of the Royal Commission on Education adopted by the late Mr. Alfred Williams, had been dealing with a comprehensive educational report to make reference to the deficiencies in primary education of young people of this State. He referred to the efforts of the late Mr. Alfred Williams. They all remembered the educational facilities of the country were being done enough in the way of educational and technical education, and that was a matter by no means by which to be dealt with at a later stage. Mr. Coneybeere went on to continue his remarks on October 28.

Mr. Coneybeere moved:—That the report of the Royal Commission on Education adopted by the late Mr. Alfred Williams, had been dealing with a comprehensive educational report to make reference to the deficiencies in primary education of young people of this State. He referred to the efforts of the late Mr. Alfred Williams. They all remembered the educational facilities of the country were being done enough in the way of educational and technical education, and that was a matter by no means by which to be dealt with at a later stage. Mr. Coneybeere went on to continue his remarks on October 28.