THE FROZEN SOUTH.

ANOTHER MESSAGE FROM MAWSON.

Sydney, May 11.

A wireless message from Terra Nova, by the name of "Admiralty," was received at the Port Macquarie Post Office on the 31st last month. It was reported that the wireless communication between the Australian wireless telegraph station at Port Macquarie and the British wireless telegraph station at King George Sound had been established. The message was received by the British wireless telegraph station at King George Sound and was forwarded to the Admiralty in London. The message contained a request for information about the weather in the Antarctic region and the status of the expedition. The message was signed by the leader of the expedition, Sir Ernest Shackleton.

MUSIC EXAMINATIONS.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

PROPOSED MUSICAL CONGRESS.

The seventh annual conference of representatives of the various musical societies and associations of Victoria, South Australia, New South Wales, and Tasmania was held yesterday at the University of Melbourne. The conference was attended by delegates from all the states, and was presided over by Professor Peter J. M. Coombe, of the University of Melbourne. The conference was called to order by the chairman, Professor Peter J. M. Coombe, and opened with the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting. The secretary, Mr. A. E. C. Bown, then presented the report of the past year, which was read and adopted. The treasurer, Mr. H. J. Parry, then presented the financial report, which was also read and adopted.

The conference then proceeded to elect officers for the coming year. The following officers were elected: President, Professor Peter J. M. Coombe; Vice-President, Mr. A. E. C. Bown; Secretary, Mr. H. J. Parry; Treasurer, Mr. H. J. Parry.

The conference then proceeded to consider various matters of general interest to the members. The following matters were discussed:

1. The question of the establishment of a national music society in Australia was discussed, and it was decided that the matter should be referred to the next meeting of the conference.

2. The question of the establishment of a national music school in Australia was discussed, and it was decided that the matter should be referred to the next meeting of the conference.

3. The question of the establishment of a national music library in Australia was discussed, and it was decided that the matter should be referred to the next meeting of the conference.

4. The question of the establishment of a national music festival in Australia was discussed, and it was decided that the matter should be referred to the next meeting of the conference.

The conference then adjourned to meet at the same place on the 12th day of May next year.