The Late Mr. Alfred William.

A Fine Career.

The deepest regret will be felt throughout South Australia as the announcement of the death of Mr. Alfred William, passed peacefully and painlessly away on Tuesday evening. For several years he had been suffering from serious, and at times almost disabling, pulmonary ailments, and his early death was a matter of great sorrow to all who knew him. He was a man of great ability, and his loss will be deeply felt by his many friends and colleagues.

Mr. William was born in 1873, and was educated at the High Schools of Adelaide and Melbourne. He was a keen student, and was well versed in all subjects of scientific and practical interest. He was a good teacher, and was able to impart his knowledge to his pupils in a manner that was both interesting and informative.

Mr. William was a man of great energy and enterprise, and was always ready to help those in need. He was a great friend to the poor, and was always willing to give of his time and money to help others.

He was a man of great courtesy and kindness, and was always ready to listen to the problems of his pupils. He was a man of great character, and was always held in high esteem by all who knew him.

The news of his death was a great shock to all who knew him, and there was a great outpouring of sympathy and condolence. His family, friends, and colleagues will all miss him greatly.

Mr. William was a great and good man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He will be greatly missed, and his memory will long be held in high esteem.