COMMENODAY DAY

LARGE AND INTERESTING FUNCTION

The notice of batonist's gala was given from Commendatory Day at the University, and, in comparison, the proceedings were far more impressive. The function is formal and brief rather than lavish. The evening opened with a speech delivered by Dr. D. B. W. Brown. After dinner, the function was continued by the Vice-Chancellor (Dr. William Barlow), the wardens of the senate, members of the council, and others connected with the institution.

During the processing of the day's events, a special appeal was made, and the audience was amazed at the grandeur of the occasion. The address was given by Dr. R. E. Adams.

TWO PRIZES

The Dean of the Faculty of Law (Professor J. B. Brown) presented the three prizes for degree, and, the winner of the prize for law, was Mr. J. A. Smith. The next prize, for the degree of Bachelor of Science—Ad munera gradum—was awarded to Mr. J. A. Smith (in absentia). The third prize, for the degree of Bachelor of Science—Munera gradum—was awarded to Mr. J. A. Smith (in absentia).

ARTS DEGREES

The Dean of the Faculty of Arts (Professor T. J. Brown) presented the three prizes for degree, and, the winner of the prize for arts, was Mr. J. A. Smith. The next prize, for the degree of Bachelor of Science—Ad munera gradum—was awarded to Mr. J. A. Smith (in absentia). The third prize, for the degree of Bachelor of Science—Munera gradum—was awarded to Mr. J. A. Smith (in absentia).

Honours Degree in Mathematics

Miss Mayo, who received the following excellent degree in mathematics, is one of the few students who have been awarded honours in this subject. She is to be congratulated on her success. Her work has been outstanding and has been a model for all students in the subject.

Honours Degree in Physics

Mr. Sanders, who received the following excellent degree in physics, is one of the few students who have been awarded honours in this subject. His work has been outstanding and has been a model for all students in the subject.

Diploma in Music

Mr. Chapman was awarded the following diploma in music, for his outstanding work in the subject. His work has been outstanding and has been a model for all students in the subject.