THE RHODES SCHOLAR.

MR. H. L. BROSE SELECTED.

The most important scholarship of the year, so far as the Adelaide University is concerned, is that which has been awarded to Mr. H. L. Brose, a student of the University. This scholarship was established in 1881 by the late Mr. John F. Rhodes, and is awarded every year to the student who, in the opinion of the University authorities, is the most meritorious student. The scholarship is valued at £100, and is awarded on the recommendation of a committee of three, consisting of the Vice-Chancellor, the Dean of the College, and the President of the University. The committee has the power to award the scholarship to any student who, in their opinion, is the most meritorious student of the University.

As regards his popularity among his fellow-students it may be mentioned that he has been a member of the student Body, and has taken an active part in all University affairs. He has been a member of the Student Body for three years, and has been a member of the University Council for the past two years. He has also been a member of the student Body for the past four years.

NEW SOUTH WALES SCHOLAR CHOSEN.

Sydney, December 19.

At a meeting of the Rhodes Scholarship Committee in Sydney last evening, the New South Wales (Lord Chelmsford) scholarship was awarded to Mr. Frederick William Blackburn, B.Sc., of the University of Sydney. The scholarship, of £100, is awarded to the student who is the most meritorious student of the University, and is valued at £100. The student is required to attend the University of Oxford for the period of one year, and is entitled to a grant of £100 per annum.

Mr. Blackburn is a student of the University of Sydney, and has been a member of the University Council for the past two years. He has also been a member of the student Body for the past three years.

The scholarship is valued at £100, and is awarded on the recommendation of a committee of three, consisting of the Vice-Chancellor, the Dean of the College, and the President of the University. The committee has the power to award the scholarship to any student who, in their opinion, is the most meritorious student of the University.

ROUTES SCHOLAR.

MR. H. H. A. BROSE SELECTED.

The task of selecting the Rhodes Scholar for 1933 was completed on Monday, when the committee, after long and careful considera- tion, chose Mr. H. H. A. Brose, B.Sc., of the University of Sydney, as the recipient of the scholarship. The scholarship, of £100, is awarded to the student who is the most meritorious student of the University, and is valued at £100. The student is required to attend the University of Oxford for the period of one year, and is entitled to a grant of £100 per annum.

Mr. Brose is a student of the University of Sydney, and has been a member of the University Council for the past two years. He has also been a member of the student Body for the past three years.

The scholarship is valued at £100, and is awarded on the recommendation of a committee of three, consisting of the Vice-Chancellor, the Dean of the College, and the President of the University. The committee has the power to award the scholarship to any student who, in their opinion, is the most meritorious student of the University.