A FAMILY MISSIONARY.

Some years ago Dr. W. A. B. Gardner travelled over a meeting of the Samoan Missionary Society at the St. Andrew's College, House on Friday evening. He alluded to the various efforts made by different foreign bodies from South Africa. There was a general feeling of sympathy and a desire to do more for the sake of the countries, which was the home of Christ, and the home of Christianity. This feeling was echoed by Mr. J. C. B. Hutton, who gave an account of the work done by the Bible Society in South Africa, and how the mission was carried on in the interior of the country. Mr. H. J. Price, the Secretary of the New South Wales Mission, spoke of the success of the work in that country, and of the readiness of the people to return home. The meeting was a success, and the missionary work was well advanced.

The Register, Oct. 26th.

A UNIVERSITY FOR ALL.

New South Wales Bill.

The University of Sydney. The University of Sydney has been established by the Government, in the Legislative Council. Mr. J. C. B. Hutton, the Secretary of the Council, has been appointed the first Governor, and the University is to have a Council of seven members, of whom three shall be nominated by the Government, and three by the University. The University is to have a Senate of twelve members, of whom six shall be nominated by the Government, and six by the University. The Senate is to have the power of electing the President, and of conducting the business of the University.

THE DELAYED JUDGMENT DANGER.

One of the saddest verses in the Bible is said to be that in Jeremiah which reads: "The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved." As Adelaide lawyers abhor the turn of events, and the next Book, which is appropriately entitled "Lamentations," they apply the phrases, with prose additions, to their own excruciating condition. The "crop" is over, and we are not saved. There is a vacation upon us, and sell our clients and ourselves are caused serious expense, irritation, annoyance, undetermined injury, and even misery, because of the unaccountable delay of Supreme Court judgments which ought to have been delivered long ago.

And the legal gentlemen do well to be angry—although perhaps as well, in a political sense, and to urge the change of their condition. From their standpoint, in particular: in relation to their clients, they have in some cases for years been unable to get a right legal opinion, and even an opinion, because of the uncertain delay of Supreme Court judgments which ought to have been delivered long ago.

There is a vacation upon us, and sell our clients and ourselves are caused serious expense, irritation, annoyance, undetermined injury, and even misery, because of the unaccountable delay of Supreme Court judgments which ought to have been delivered long ago.

And the legal gentlemen do well to be angry—although perhaps as well, in a political sense, and to urge the change of their condition. From their standpoint, in particular: in relation to their clients, they have in some cases for years been unable to get a right legal opinion, and even an opinion, because of the uncertain delay of Supreme Court judgments which ought to have been delivered long ago.

And the legal gentlemen do well to be angry—although perhaps as well, in a political sense, and to urge the change of their condition. From their standpoint, in particular: in relation to their clients, they have in some cases for years been unable to get a right legal opinion, and even an opinion, because of the uncertain delay of Supreme Court judgments which ought to have been delivered long ago.