THE CATHEDRAL.

The Bishop of Adelaide (Dr. Thomas), preaching at the Cathedral on Sunday morning, said: 'Let us pray for the Pope, the King, and the Bishop of Rome, and for the life and example of one who identified himself in many ways with the life of the State—Lady Way.' She was known to all, and honored and loved by all, for her kindness, her gentle spirit, and her simple goodness. On her death, the Bishop said, the State was poorer, and the Church in Australia had lost a valuable member.
