THE UNIVERSITY OF ADELAIDE.

COUNCIL MEETING.

A meeting of the Council of the University of Adelaide was held on Friday, the 1st of August, in the New Building. The President, Mr. J. K. B. Marsh, in his opening speech, referred to the important work of the University in the field of education, and the need for greater co-operation between the University and the community. He emphasized the importance of the University in the development of the state and the region.

MISS CHEEK HONOURED.

PRESENTATIONS AT GAWLER.

The institute was crowded last Saturday by a large number of friends who had come to pay their respects to Miss Muriel Cheek. Miss Cheek, who is leaving for London, was presented with a number of valuable presents, including a cheque for £100, a gold watch, and a diamond ring. She was also presented with a scroll by the Governor of the University, President, and other members of the University Council.

The University of Aberdeen.

FACULTY OF MEDICINE.

WINTER SESSION, 1912-1913.

The University of Aberdeen is one of the oldest and most prominent universities in Scotland. It was founded in 1495 and is one of the oldest universities in the world. The University is located in Aberdeen, a city in north-east Scotland.

Universities Notices.

1912-1913.

The Winter Session of the University of Aberdeen commenced on Thursday, October 10th. The preliminary examinations will be held on Friday, October 11th. The Faculty of Medicine, in addition to giving the degree of M.B., additionally gives the degree of M.R.C.S. The Faculty of Medicine is recognized as one of the leading faculties in Scotland.

The death of Miss Muriel Cheek, A.M.I.A., who is leaving for London, was announced by the University. Miss Cheek was a well-known medical student and had a number of prominent friends who came to pay their respects. She was presented with a number of valuable presents, including a cheque for £100, a gold watch, and a diamond ring. She was also presented with a scroll by the Governor of the University, President, and other members of the University Council.