SOMLY STUDENTS.

From "Veritas":—"Thanks are due to the University Senate for giving publicity to the matter, on which a majority of the Court are desirous of action, and by the request of the Vice-Chancellor, the Hon. Sir Henry James, of Percival, Kent, the matter was referred to the Court, and that Court was convinced of the necessity of action, and of the desirability of the amendment of the regulations, and the amendments were made accordingly. The Court was then satisfied that the matter was in every way satisfactory, and the amendment was made accordingly. The amendment was then referred to the Senate, and the Senate was satisfied that the matter was in every way satisfactory, and the amendment was made accordingly.

UNIVERSITY SENATE.

NEW REGULATIONS.

A meeting of the Senate was held on Wednesday, twenty-five members being present, and the Warden (Mr. F. Chappell) in the chair. Professor Chapman moved for the approval of the regulations in connection with a degree of Bachelor of Literature, and a degree in engineering, and the Senate was satisfied that the regulations were in every way satisfactory, and the amendments were made accordingly.

Professor Chapman, in moving for the approval of the regulations in connection with a degree of Bachelor of Literature, said that the inquest in connection with engineering had been made for some time, and the Senate was satisfied that the regulations were in every way satisfactory, and the amendments were made accordingly.

The Senate was satisfied that the regulations were in every way satisfactory, and the amendments were made accordingly.

Professor Chapman, in moving for the approval of the regulations in connection with a degree of Bachelor of Literature, said that the inquest in connection with engineering had been made for some time, and the Senate was satisfied that the regulations were in every way satisfactory, and the amendments were made accordingly.

The Senate was satisfied that the regulations were in every way satisfactory, and the amendments were made accordingly.