INTEMBERABLE STOCKS.

Amendment of Conditions Sought.

Mr. George Brockman, who, when a member of the Legislative Council, and since has taken a long interest in all the questions of the commercial side of the State, has obtained the views of a number of the holders of the stock in question, in the hope of influencing the committee of the Stock Exchange, and is now in the position of the Stock Exchange in the matter of the amendment of the conditions of the stock, which was issued in 1890. Mr. Brockman urged that the Government to which he referred, would receive a certain advantage. The amendment of the conditions of the stock, which was issued in 1890, would, he said, be a great advantage to the Government, and would be in the interest of the Commonwealth. The Government had the power to appoint a committee to investigate the matter, and it was hoped that the committee would be appointed as soon as possible.

The Premier (Hon. A. H. Peake) has intimated that he will be able to consider the matter, and he said that he would be able to take the matter into consideration at an early date.

Exchange of Professors.

The Government of the United Kingdom has decided to exchange professors with the universities of the Empire, and it is expected that the exchange will be carried out in the near future.

The Premier (Hon. A. H. Peake) has intimated that he will be able to consider the matter, and he said that he would be able to take the matter into consideration at an early date.
