Conservatorium Students The first concert of the 1912 season was given under the direction of Mr. Harold Fawcett, on Wednesday evening, and was attended by an appreciative audience. Lady Bogue, the Rector of the Conservatory, presented a harp to the dead and fell into the hands of the performers and was well appreciated by the audience. The program included vocal and instrumental music by several composers, including a recital by Miss Gladys Claxton, who is always a favorite with the audience. The Conservatorium students were well represented in the performance, and it was evident that they had prepared well for the concert.

The newly appointed Judge of the Supreme Court, Mr. John Downey, led the commission to the Fall Court on Tuesday morning. The ceremony was held in the new court of the newly completed buildings in the fall. Mr. Downey was accompanied by Miss Gladys Claxton, who is always a favorite with the audience. The Conservatorium students were well represented in the performance, and it was evident that they had prepared well for the concert.
