THE ELDER CONSERVATORIUM.

Monday was the first day of the new session for the Elder Conservatorium, and the director, Dr. Ennis, was busy receiving new students. A number of alterations have been made in the teaching staff. The strongest department has been the Conservatorium of Music and Drama, under Mr. W. Hay, head of the orchestra, and Mr. R. Hay, head of the drama department.

ADELAIDE UNIVERSITY BUILDINGS.

The unfortunate delay in building the additions to the Adelaide University is likely to cause some inconvenience for the students, but the new building, which will be ready in the first quarter of the year, will provide much-needed additional space for the students. The library, which was completed last year, is now in use.

FIRST SPENCE SCHOLAR.

Miss E. D. Proud Chosen.

The Advisory Committee of the Spence Scholar, founded by the late Miss Maria Spence, has selected Miss E. D. Proud as the first Spence Scholar. Miss Proud has been recommended to the committee by Dr. Helen S. Cropper, who has been associated with the university for many years.

UNIVERSITY PATHOLOGY.

Messrs. J. King & Son, the contractors for the new pathological block at the Adelaide University, have commenced the work. The building will be ready by March, and will provide much-needed additional space for the students.

ELDER CONSERVATORIUM STUDENTS.

About 250 students, including both boys and girls, have enrolled for the first term. The Conservatorium of Music and Drama has about 150 students, and the Conservatorium of Fine Arts has about 100 students. The Conservatorium of Music and Drama has about 150 students, and the Conservatorium of Fine Arts has about 100 students.

THE UNIVERSITY CALENDAR.

The calendar of the Adelaide University for the year 1911 is now available. It is the same as that of the previous year, and includes all the usual courses and subjects. The students are required to attend all the classes, and are expected to complete their courses within the term.

The students are required to attend all the classes, and are expected to complete their courses within the term.

BIBLIOGRAPHY.

Miss E. D. Proud, M.A., has lived in South Australia since her birth on June 18, 1895. She was educated at Elderslie, and she speaks well English. She is now in her fourth year at the University of Adelaide, and she has been a pupil teacher at the University of Sydney, where she has been a pupil teacher since 1910.

Today, Mr. B. R. Hodge celebrates his 25th year as Registrar of the University. The council at their meeting in November appointed Mr. Hodge to the position of Registrar. Mr. Hodge has been a pupil teacher at the University for the last 25 years, and he is a member of the council.