WORKERS' EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION

MEETING OF THE COUNCIL

A meeting of the central council of the Workers' Educational Association was held at the Adelaide University on Wednesday evening. The chairman occupied the chair, Professors Mitchell and Jethro Brown were present, and Sir Langdon Bonython and Mr. J. Grayson the School of Mines. Among others present were Dr. Gortzke, W. H. Ham, F. W. C. Mather, and a large number of delegates from the trades unions, and the assistant secretary (Mr. W. E. A.).

Professor Meredith Atkinson, director of tutorial classes of the Adelaide University, gave an interesting address on tutorial classes and other activities of the Workers' Educational Association. He stated that the ideal standard of the three years' course in connection with the University's tutorial classes should be maintained, and that strong efforts should be made to attract students of the best quality.

A splendid beginning.

The meeting was addressed by the chairman, who said that the central council was held at the Adelaide University on Wednesday evening. The chairman conducted the meeting and opened the session. Among other present were Dr. Gortzke, W. H. Ham, F. W. C. Mather, and the assistant-secretary (Mr. W. E. A.). Apologies were received from the representative of the University of Adelaide (Mr. A. J. Boreas). The meeting then adjourned.

Professor Meredith Atkinson, director of tutorial classes of the Sydney University, gave an interesting address on tutorial classes and other activities of the Workers' Educational Association. He stated that the ideal standard of the three years' course in connection with the University's tutorial classes should be maintained, and that strong efforts should be made to attract students of the best quality.

A splendid beginning.

The meeting was conducted by the chairman, who said that the central council was held at the Adelaide University on Wednesday evening. The chairman conducted the meeting and opened the session. Among other present were Dr. Gortzke, W. H. Ham, F. W. C. Mather, and the assistant-secretary (Mr. W. E. A.). Apologies were received from the representative of the University of Adelaide (Mr. A. J. Boreas). The meeting then adjourned.

Mr. Harold Parsons Interviewed.

Mr. Harold Parsons has just returned to Adelaide after some highly interesting experiences and valuable study in the musical circles of England and the Continent. He met many of the world's foremost musicians, and heard the best music that may be heard by music lovers at home.

At the Fountain Head.

The Advertiser.

Mr. Harold Parsons spoke in glowing terms of the idealism and enthusiasm of the various workers' educational associations he visited, and of the energy and determination with which they were working to improve the educational opportunities of the working classes.

At the Fountain Head.

The Advertiser.

Mr. Harold Parsons spoke in glowing terms of the idealism and enthusiasm of the various workers' educational associations he visited, and of the energy and determination with which they were working to improve the educational opportunities of the working classes.

At the Fountain Head.

The Advertiser.

Mr. Harold Parsons spoke in glowing terms of the idealism and enthusiasm of the various workers' educational associations he visited, and of the energy and determination with which they were working to improve the educational opportunities of the working classes.