EDUCATION COMMISSION.

Mr. Stanton examined.
The Education Commission went to Parliament House on Monday morning. Present—Mr. A. W. Styles, M.I.C., Chairman of the Committee of Education, Mr. W. L. Stanton, Secretary to the Minister of Education, and Mr. R. J. C. L. Howard, M.I.C.

Mr. Stanton said the commission had been doing a lot of good work, had visited all the rural areas, and had conducted a survey of the state's educational system. He also expressed his concern at the lack of funding for education and the need for a comprehensive plan to address the shortfall.
