No invitations for the meeting have been issued, and it is desired to have the presence of all citizens of the State who are able to attend. His Excellency the Governor, Sir Samuel Way (Chief Justice and Chancellor of the University), the President of the South Australian Branch of the Royal Geographical Society, Mr. E. W. P. (Hon. R.G.S.), and the President of the Royal Society (Dr. J. C. Verco) will take part in the farewell. The proceedings will be brief, and the proceedings will be concluded by 1 o'clock.

THE ANTARCTIC EXPEDITION.

FAREWELL TO DR. MAWSON.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC GATHERING.

The Exchange Room at the Adelaide Town Hall was the scene of an enthusiastic gathering on Saturday at noon for the purpose of saying farewell to Dr. Douglas Mawson and his party, consisting of members of his party on the eve of their departure for the Antarctic. The chart was spread out, and His Excellency the Governor, who was supported by the Chief Justice (Sir S. J. Way), and had on his right the罗校长, he had on his left the President of the University of Adelaide, the President of the Royal Society, and the President of the Royal Geographical Society. The proceedings were enthusiastic.

The Governor's Speech.

His Excellency the Governor said he wished to express his appreciation of the cordial manner in which the expedition was taken up by the Governor to provide for the important meeting. As all those present had, he thought, an awareness of the great importance of the exact objectives of the Antarctic expedition, he would like to express his hope that the expedition might be successful and that it might be successful in the highest function of the building up of Australian prestige. He was sure that they would recognize the advance made in this direction by the Governor of the University of Adelaide, the President of the Royal Society, and the President of the University of Adelaide, and the Governor had been an active member of the expedition.

The meeting was adjourned.
