THE JOSPEH FISHER LECTURES IN COMMERCE.

"Problems of Transportation and Their Relation to Australian Trade and Commerce" is the subject of the "Joseph Fisher Lecture in Commerce" to be delivered at the Prince of Wales Theatre this evening by the Hon. David J. Gordon. After stating the economic influence of modern methods of carriage on industries and trade, distance, and rail-traveling expenses, etc., the lecturer will refer to the methods of transportation and their effects on the commerce of the Commonwealth. He will then discuss the "problems of transportation and commerce in Australia," and the progress and future of Australian transportation.

The biennial Joseph Fisher Lecture in Commerce, the delivering of which is a condition under which the late Mr. Joseph Fisher endowed a scholarship, was delivered last night in the Prince of Wales Theatre at the University by the Hon. David J. Gordon. Mr. Fisher said "Problems of Transportation and Their Relation to Australian Trade and Commerce." He said: --"The problem of transportation is the problem of civilisation. Railways, roads and rivers are factors in the progress of the Commonwealth and in the life of the nation.
