WELCOME TO MESSRS. CORRELL & WAINWRIGHT

The Prince Alfred, whose deputation will tender a welcome home luncheon to Lord Dufferin and Lord Methuen at the City Hall on Saturday, will be under the command of Capt. J. G. Davis, who has been seconded to the ship. The Prince will be accompanied by the Duke of York on his return from India, and will be received by the Lord Mayor and Corporation of Sydney. The Prince is expected to arrive on Friday morning, and will occupy the Prince of Wales' Apartment at Government House. The luncheon will be held in the Great Hall of the City Hall, and will be attended by a large number of guests. The Prince will speak at the dinner, and will be presented with a gold watch and chain by the Lord Mayor and Corporation of Sydney. The Lord Mayor will also present a cheque for £100 to the Prince, on behalf of the citizens of Sydney, as a token of their respect and loyalty. The Prince will then proceed to Government House, where he will be entertained by the Governor of New South Wales.

A MAYORAL TRIBUTE

The Mayor of Unley (Hon. W. L. C. Hall), at the meeting of the corporation on Monday night, and also on behalf of the citizens of Sydney, tendered a hearty welcome to the Prince, and expressed the hope that he would be enabled to visit the State.
