The Ministry of Customs (Mr. Groom) has been taken by the Minister for External Affairs (Mr. Symon), who mentioned in Parliament that the Customs Department was functioning very efficiently.

Dr. Maxwell, the Manchester University lecturer, has been appointed to the post of Professor of Physics at the University of Melbourne. His work in this field has been widely recognized, and his appointment will be a decided advance for the university.

The recent world conference on the制止 of wars has been attended by the representatives of all countries, and the agreement reached will be a step forward in the prevention of future conflicts.

The Australian Chamber of Commerce has held its annual general meeting, and the chairman, Mr. A. W. Brown, delivered an address on the state of the nation and the outlook for business.

The Australian government has decided to establish a new university in the north-west of the country, and the site has been selected. This will be a great stride forward in the education of the people of the region.

The Australian Broadcasting Commission has inaugurated a new series of broadcasts on the arts and sciences, and the public has responded enthusiastically.

The Australian cricket team has arrived in England, and the first match, against the MCC, is eagerly awaited. The Australian team is expected to do well.

The Australian government has announced a new policy of import restrictions, and the effect of this on the economy will be closely watched.

The scientific community has expressed its concern over the recent rise in the cost of scientific research. It is feared that this may deter many from pursuing scientific careers.

The Australian government has announced a new policy of import restrictions, and the effect of this on the economy will be closely watched.

The Australian government has announced a new policy of import restrictions, and the effect of this on the economy will be closely watched.

The Australian government has announced a new policy of import restrictions, and the effect of this on the economy will be closely watched.