THE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT.

BURSARIES AWARDED.

The Minister of Education has awarded

Government Bursaries to the following candidates—Roger, Charles Brown, Adelaide High School; Strickland, Carl Leon., Adelaide High School; Hawke, Colin, Harris, Adelaide High School; Watson, J. D. Brown, Adelaide High School; Cooper, Donald, Christian Brothers' College; Butterfield, Ian., William, St. Peter's College; Ray, Howard, Lonsdale, Prince Alfred College;
An interesting link with the past was forever severed by the death on Christmas morning at the residence of Mr. Justice Slow by fire of Mrs. M. S. Slow, who was born in Western Australia in 1832, the wife of Mr. Marshall MacDermott. Her father was for ten years a stipendiary magistrate in this State, and before coming to Australia was a member of the 8th King's Regiment. In 1837, she held the portfolio of Commissioner of Titles for the Government. Mrs. Slow came to South Australia when 10 years of age, and was married at Christ Church, North Adelaide, in 1834, to Mr. Randolph Isham Slow, then a rising barrister. Her husband had a brilliant professional career, and was a prominent member of the bar. He entered Parliament as a representative of West Torrens in 1841, and held office of Attorney-General. He succumbed to the plagues of South Australia a few years before his death on September 20, 1858. Mrs. Slow had a wide circle of friends, for she was deeply beloved for her kindly nature and indefatigable character. After the passing of the Women's Suffrage Bill she took a deep interest, and supported the women's cause as a public worker. The franchise having been extended to her sex, she held it to be the highest compliment that could be paid her, for she had never sought the right to vote to herself as far as possible. In 1858, she moved to North Adelaide for nearly 50 years, and her life ended with her death. The family of Mr. P. R. Slow, Mr. E. M. Slow, Mr. W. J. Slow, and Mr. W. H. Slow, Crown Solicitor of Western Australia, Miss Slow, of North Adelaide; and Mr. J. W. Slow, of Adelaide, were deeply saddened. Mrs. Slow was the beloved of her husband, and the end of her property. The balance sheet and statement of account for 1834 was submitted, and the balance was approved. The annual report of the proceedings of the University for the year 1834, submitted by the President, Mr. W. F. Young, was read. The resignation of Mr. T. W. Young was also read.
