The four sons of the firm, Pippins, successfully performed in the Adelaide Town Hall on August 13. The concert was well-received by the audience, with Benedict Coxon taking the lead in his performance.

The program featured a variety of musical pieces, including compositions by Mozart, Beethoven, and Chopin. The performers, all members of the firm, showcased their individual talents while harmonizing beautifully as a group. The concert concluded with a rendition of 'Moonlight Sonata', which left the audience in awe.
