Mr. Leon M. Gollet,
maintained on the Sunday price for English verse at the University.
According to reports in the English newspapers, Miss Daisy Kennedy, the American singer, is to hold her own in the world's metropoles. A recital in the Athenaeum Hall is to be announced. The recital will be a testimonial to the great singer's art. Miss Kennedy gave an impromptu performance in the Athenaeum, which was a great success. The voice of this artist is unique and should be heard. It is said that Miss Kennedy represents a definite artistic standard, and is yet to meet with her match. The recital will be a great event in the sphere of native art, for Miss Kennedy will perform in a manner that will astound the audience. She will sing with grace and beauty, and her powers will enable her to achieve her goal.

Riodes Scholarships.
The Rhodes Scholarships for 1915-1916 stated—The war has continued throughout the past year and is entering with the normal expansion of the scholarship system. The trust has provided funds for all scholars of the Dominions and colonies who take up the standard at Oxford, or one of the colonies, who are unable to do so. The number of places is over and they are free to take up residence at Oxford. Leave of absence has been granted to all scholars of the United States who wished to take part in the war. Workers' Education Council Meeting.
Getting real laborers interested.

There was a moderate attendance of the Trades Hall last night, when Mr. T. was invited to speak. The attendance were Professor Barnby Noy, Coton, Honorary Treasurer of the Workers' Educational Association, Mr. G. O. Bennett, Mr. H. Gilmore, and others prominent in the Labor movement. The chairman, with regard to the council, had made the supreme sacrifice on the side of the)( and the relations is to be fostered. A similar letter is to be sent to the Labor movement, with the help of the next meeting.

The report of the secretary, which was presented at the meeting, is as follows:

"The Workers' Educational Association of South Australia is at the present moment, for the benefit of trade unionists, the best means of extending the educational facilities of the State."

"We are now at the stage where the work of the Association is being carried on in a manner which is entirely satisfactory. The object of the Association is to provide a means of educational advancement for the working class, and it is evident that the work is being done in a manner which is entirely satisfactory. The Association is now in a position to carry on its work in a manner which is entirely satisfactory."
