THE RHODES SCHOLAR.

MR. H. W. B. CAIRNS SELECTED.

A SOLDIER STUDENT.

The members of the Rhodes Scholarship Committee—His Excellency the Governor (Sir Henry Galway), the Chief Justice (Hon. G. J. R. Murray), Professors Henderson, Stirling, and Naylor, Mr. J. R. Fowler, and the Registrar of the University (Mr. C. R. Hodge)—met at Government House on Monday morning for the purpose of selecting the Rhodes Scholar for the ensuing year. There were eight candidates, but only six were able to appear before the committee, the other two having gone to the war. The meeting lasted nearly two hours, and upon the conclusion of the deliberations, the Registrar, who is secretary to the committee, announced that the scholarship had been awarded to Mr. Hugh William Bell Cairns, a medical student, who has a fine record. Mr. Cairns is a son of Mr. W. Cairns, of Riverton, and was born on June 26, 1896. He was educated first at the Riverton Public School, and later at the Adelaide High School, from which he passed to the University. His record, as submitted to the selection committee, was as follows:—

Mr. H. W. B. Cairns.

Leadership and Popularity.

1911. Lance-Corporal in cadets. Editor of Adelaide High School Magazine.

1914. On committees of University Boat and Lacrosse clubs. Secretary and treasurer on students' concert and procession.

1915. Secretary and treasurer of Boat Club. Delegate to committee of University Sports Association. On Lacrosse Club committee. Lance-Corporal in A.A.M.C. Assistant in charge, X-ray Department, No. 3, A.G.H.; in charge of out-patient dressing station, No. 3, A.G.H.

1916 Assistant Q.M.S. and compounder on transport A71. Treasurer of University Sports Association. Member of finance committee of A.U.S.A. Secretary and treasurer of Lacrosse Club. Delegate to S.A. Lacrosse Association. On committee of Boat Club. Acting Government pathologist for a fortnight. House surgeon at Children's Hospital (3 months). Assistant at Venereal Department, Adelaide Hospital.

Mr. Cairns was on active service at the front for 10 months, and was sent back to complete his medical course, so that he could return to duty on the medical staff. At present he is on duty at the Children's Hospital.

When the news of Mr. Cairns' selection reached the Adelaide High School the masters and pupils were delighted. Subsequently Mr. W. J. Adey, the headmaster, said:—"Mr. Cairns was a pupil here for three years, having been awarded a scholarship by the Government, entitling him to three years' secondary education. At the end of 1909 he passed the junior public examination in eight subjects with three credits, and was placed on the general honors list. In 1910 he passed the senior in eight subjects with two credits, and was again placed in the honors list. In 1911 he passed the higher public examination in five subjects, and as a result of that examination was awarded a Government bursary in medicine at the University. While here he took an active part in cricket, football, and tennis, was the editor of the 'School Magazine,' and generally was one of the most popular and capable students of his day."
