IN THE PEACE TREATY JUST From H. S. TAYLOR, Remarks—I am not concerned to follow in the tortures of Professor Professor Philippin's speech, but I must say that he has left his head when he should have kept it, but he had arrived at an understanding, and perhaps correct the German and the majority of his countrymen. Professor Philippin, describing the	indignant	and entirely	paralyzing	view	of the	Treaty,
not	understanding	what	it meant,
