A TRIUMPH AT THE TOWN HALL.

"Veni, vidi, vici!" might well have been uttered by M. Verbrugghen after the first concert of his Adelaide series on Tuesday. The performance had been a revelation in the large audience present at the Town Hall, which had exceeded all expectations, which were fully realized. The Zeitschrift der Musik-Schule and the Berliner Bühnen Zeitung, which had already praised the great conductor, added their acclaim, and the public acclaimed him with enthusiasm.

M. VERBRUGGHEN'S HINTS FOR ADELAIDE.

The advent of M. Henri Verbruggen and the New South Wales State Orchestra is of historic importance to Adelaide. On arrival from Melbourne on Tuesday morning, M. Verbruggen was met by the Mayor of the City, the Premier of the State, the Governor, and other officials. The reception was热烈 and cordial, and the public was delighted to see the great conductor of music. He was received with a shower of flowers and a symbolic key to the city.

M. VERBRUGGHEN'S HINTS FOR ADELAIDE.

A sovereign assembly of musical artists in Adelaide at a moment of great crisis had assembled to hear the famous orchestral leader and his company, and to listen to the works of the great masters. The audience was eagerly waiting to hear the music of Verbruggen, and all were thrilled by the performance. The music was received with enthusiasm and the audience cheered and applauded continuously. The conductor was praised for his wonderful interpretation of the music and his ability to bring out the finest qualities of the orchestra.
