UNIVERSITY TRAINING COLLEGE.

ROLL OF HONOUR UNVEILED.

During the period of the war, no fewer than 88 students and former students of the University Training College were on active service. Of these, 63 performed the deeds for which they have now been identified by the unveiling of the Roll of Honour in the University Quadrangle.

The memorial, the practice of the University, bears the names of 88 men who have passed beyond the service of the College.

The University Training College has a roll of honour that lists 88 students and former students who served during the war. The memorial is located in the University Quadrangle. The names of these individuals are displayed on the memorial to honor their service.
