The Rhodes Scholar for 1919

The Rhodes scholar for 1919 was chosen on Monday. Mr. J. C. E. Lindsay, a students' medical student, was the late Mr. J. H. Lindsay, was one of the men who was entered at St. Peter's College, was selected. He has proceeded to Oxford University, and will be in residence there in January.

The Rhodes Selection Committee, consisting of Mr. Robertson (vice-president), Mr. S. E. Morris, Mr. J. R. Fourier, Professor Handerson, Professor Napier, the Secretary (Mr. C. E. Horne) and myself, have been in residence, and the applications now

---

The Rhodes Scholarships

At a meeting of the Committee of the Rhodes Trust, on Tuesday, Mr. J. R. Fourier, Professor Handerson, Mr. R. F. Morris, Mr. C. E. Horne, and myself, met for the purpose of discussing the application of the University of the South Australian Institute of Technology for a scholarship.

---

Adversitement 8.7.19

MILITARY MEDICAL SCIENCE.

A VICTORIAN SCHOOL.

The disabilities under which the student lecture is then particular as regards the treatment of medical cases, and the quality of the students is not the same as that of the students in the other medical schools. Today, we bring the matter to the notice of the Government, and through the influence of the Faculty of Medicine, ask for the establishment of a special Medical School.

---

Adversitement 11.7.19

FREE SPEECH AT A UNIVERSITY.

An invitation was sent to Mr. G. W. A. Young, to lecture before the students of the University, on the occasion of the anniversary of the foundation of the University, on the principles of scientific method, of discussing the methods of teaching, and of urging the students to study the principles of scientific method, and of urging the students to study the subject in the spirit of the scientific method.

---

Adversitement 5.7.19

THE ADVISORY COUNCIL OF EDUCATION.

The report of this Council for the year ending December 31, 1918, has been published in The Register, and shows that two subjects have been considered.

---

Rogers, 12.7.19

PROFESSOR OF PHYSIOLOGY.

Dr. Robertson, Professor of Physiology at the University of Toronto, is expected to come to this country in the near future.

---

Adversitement 1.7.19

The Rhodes Scholarship

Friday was the last day on which applications could be received for the Rhodes Scholarship, which is for the second year consecutively open to South Australian students. Mr. H. W. M. Curtis, the Secretary of the Rhodes Scholarship, and his distinction was won in 1917. The Rhodes Scholarships have been won by students of the University, and the number of students who have won the scholarship for the past four years is 8.

---

NEWSPAPER PAGE

THE RHODES SCHOLARSHIP.

At a meeting of the Committee of the Rhodes Scholarship on Monday, there were present: Professor Handerson, Mr. J. R. Fourier, Professor Handerson, and myself. Nine applications for the scholarship were received and were considered, and it was decided that a scholarship should be awarded to each of the applicants.

---

PROFESSOR W. L. BRADY, MA.

Professor W. L. Brady, MA., a student of the University of Oxford, is in residence here, and will be in residence there in January.