Death of Well-known Musician.

The death occurred on Tuesday morning at a private hospital at Dollis Hill, the residence of Mr. J. M. Ennis, formerly Elder Professor of Music at the Adelaide University, and Director of the Elder Conservatorium. The news of his death was a shock to all who knew him, as he was still young and vigorous, and his death came as a sudden and unexpected end to his career. Dr. Ennis was a well-known musical figure, not only in Adelaide but throughout the country, and his death will be deeply felt. He was a devoted husband and father, and his wife and children are left to mourn his loss. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon, and was attended by many of his friends and former pupils. The service was conducted by the Rev. Canon Parris, and the remains were interred in the family plot in the Glenelg Cemetery.
