BIRTH OF THE UNIVERSITY

INTERESTING REMINISCENCES

By Lie. Rev. F. Stanley Foote, M.A.

The people of the State, and rapidly increasing University, and the Victorian State, have cause to be grateful for the great service rendered to the University by those who took part in the foundation of the University. The University was chartered in 1855, and the University College, which was later to become the University of Melbourne, was opened in 1858. The University has played a significant role in the cultural, economic, and social development of the State.

MINING STUDENTS' SUCCESS

Mr. F. G. T. Nichols, hon. secretary of the Mines and Metallurgists' Association, has had a number of mining students in recent years, and they have done well. Mr. Nichols has provided scholarships for the past year and a half, and one of the students, Mr. C. T. C. Miller, has been awarded the University of Melbourne Scholarship. Mr. Miller has been a consistent performer and has made significant contributions to the field of mining.

ELDER CONSERVATORY

A FINE CONCERT

The concert organised by Miss Myra Ingham, at which W. H. Poole, recently of the National Conservatory, performed, was a pronounced success. The concert was designed to provide an opportunity for the students of the Conservatory to showcase their talents and develop their skills. Miss Ingham, known for her exceptional ability in music, ensured that the concert was a memorable event for all those involved.

ADELAIDE UNIVERSITY ADDITIONS

A number of new students have been added to the ranks of the Adelaide University. The University has been growing rapidly, and the addition of new students is a testament to its continued success. The new students bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to the University, enriching the academic atmosphere.

ROWING INTER-UNIVERSITY RACE

MELBOURNE WINS

The inter-university rowing race held on the Yarra River was a thrilling event. The University of Melbourne's team, led by experienced rowers, put in a strong performance, securing the victory for their institution. The race is an annual event that brings together the best rowing teams from the universities of Melbourne, Sydney, and Adelaide, showcasing their skills and teamwork.

STUDY OF ECONOMICS

Economics is a field of study that is of great importance to society. Mr. E. C. Cotta, a student of the University, has been performing exceptionally well in his studies. His dedication and hard work have contributed to his success, and he is expected to make significant contributions to the field of economics.

INTER-VARSITY BOAT RACE

The inter-varsity boat race, which was held recently, was a highly competitive event. Both teams, from the University of Melbourne and the University of Sydney, put up a good performance. The University of Melbourne emerged victorious, showcasing the talent and teamwork of its rowing team.

The letter was written by Mr. F. G. T. Nichols, who is known for his contributions to the mining industry, and his encouragement of young students. The letter highlights the importance of education and the role of the University in fostering the growth of the mining industry.

The letter was written by Mr. F. G. T. Nichols, who is known for his contributions to the mining industry, and his encouragement of young students. The letter highlights the importance of education and the role of the University in fostering the growth of the mining industry.