THE LOWREN SCHOLARSHIP.

The council of the University at its last meeting conferred the Lowren scholarship on Miss Gladys Swallow of the English department, in recognition of her high scholastic standing. This scholarship, valued at £50, is awarded annually to the student who shows the greatest promise of becoming a teacher of English.

ELDER CONSERVATORIUM.

The class for the study of orchestral playing at the Elder Conservatorium, under the direction of Professor E. G. B. West, has been completed. The students showed great promise, and it is hoped that they will continue their studies at the conservatorium.

COMMUNITY SINGING.

Lovers of community singing, which was established in public favor last year, are looking forward to a new season. The chorus will start again on Sunday, and will be under the direction of Miss Ethel Brown. A short organ recital will precede the singing, and the program will consist of a selection from the last week's meeting.

ROWING.

CONCLUDING REGATTA.

The final regatta program for the season, arranged by the S.A. rowing association, was held on the Torrens on Saturday. The regatta included both men's and women's races, and was won by the University team.

RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIP.

Miss Maud Margaret Gibson has been awarded a scholarship for research in the field of medical science. The scholarship is valued at £50, and is intended to enable her to continue her studies in the British Empire.

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN ORCHESTRA.

The South Australian orchestra will give a free concert in the University Hall on Sunday afternoon, April 5, when the first of its annual programs will be presented. The orchestra will be conducted by Mr. Arthur Nicholls, and will consist of the most prominent musicians of the state.
