UNIVERSITY OF ADELAIDE.

PUBLIC EXAMINATIONS 1921.

Crusade Literature (Dr. G. H. Kettles), Greek History (Mr. W. H. Foreman), Latin (Mr. W. E. Phillips), Latin Literature (Mr. W. H. Foreman), English Language (Mr. W. H. Foreman), English Literature (Mr. W. H. Foreman), English History (Mr. W. H. Foreman), and Political Science (Mr. W. H. Foreman).

The examiner's report on the results of the Public Examinations shows that the candidates have made great progress. The results were very satisfactory. In the English Literature papers, the candidates have shown a decided improvement in their ability to express ideas clearly and fluently. In the Latin History papers, the candidates have shown a good understanding of the subject and have been able to express their ideas clearly and accurately. In the English Language papers, the candidates have shown a good grasp of the language and have been able to express their ideas clearly and fluently. In the English Literature papers, the candidates have shown a good understanding of the subject and have been able to express their ideas clearly and accurately. In the English History papers, the candidates have shown a good grasp of the subject and have been able to express their ideas clearly and accurately. In the Political Science papers, the candidates have shown a good understanding of the subject and have been able to express their ideas clearly and accurately.

SKULLS PATCHED WITH

A report on a method of patching up broken skulls with cellophane tape. The tape is very strong and can be cut to size. It is used in military hospitals and is also being used in hospitals in the United States. The tape is also being used in hospitals in the United Kingdom. The tape is also being used in hospitals in the United States. The tape is also being used in hospitals in the United Kingdom. The tape is also being used in hospitals in the United Kingdom.

ELODER CONSERVATORY.

The Italian dance, under Professor Oscar phosphate, will be given at 6.30 p.m., Thursday, October 13th. The concert will be held in the Conservatory Hall. Tickets can be obtained at the box office.

THREE STARS.

Mr. J. C. Rawlinson, accompanied by his wife, returned from Europe on the steamer "Victrix" on Monday, October 12th. The Rawlinson family were welcomed at the railway station by a large party of friends. The Rawlinson family have been on a tour of Europe for several months. They will be residing in Adelaide for some time.

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN ORCHESTRA.

The Symphony Orchestra will give a concert on Thursday, October 14th, at the Town Hall. The orchestra will be conducted by Mr. W. H. Foulkes. The programme will consist of works by Mozart, Beethoven, and Wagner. Tickets can be obtained at the box office.

ELODER CONSERVATORY.

Mr. W. H. Foulkes, the conductor of the Symphony Orchestra, will give a concert on Thursday, October 14th, at the Town Hall. The programme will consist of works by Mozart, Beethoven, and Wagner. Tickets can be obtained at the box office.

PUBLIC EXAMINATIONS 1921.

The Manual of the Public Examinations (1921) of the University of Adelaide is a valuable document containing tables of the subjects, the dates of the examinations, and the results. It is issued every year to students and parents, and is considered a valuable resource for students preparing for their examinations. The manual includes a comprehensive list of the subjects offered, the dates of the examinations, and the results. It is a valuable resource for students preparing for their examinations. The manual includes a comprehensive list of the subjects offered, the dates of the examinations, and the results.