MEETING OF THE SENATE.

A meeting of the senate of the University of Adelaide was held on Wednesday, the 21st instant, on the Provost's recommendation. Statutes were amended by the following being substituted for existing provisions:

Dr. Davie's Scholarship.
Each Scholarship shall be of the value of £100 and shall be awarded to the best student in any of the first five years of the M.B. course who shall be placed in the senior class of the University at the examinations held for the purpose on the 10th of February.

Bursary Prize for English Verse.
Opposite to all poems presented shall be retained, and the best one shall be awarded to the student whose name is found to be the best student in the University in the course of the following year.

No. 1:—To obtain the degree each candidate must complete a three years' course of study or qualify for one by the following provisions being adopted:

After passing the entrance examination, he must be placed in the senior class of the University at the examinations held for the purpose on the 10th of February.

No. 2:—To obtain the degree each candidate must complete a three years' course of study or qualify for one by the following provisions being adopted:

After passing the entrance examination, he must be placed in the senior class of the University at the examinations held for the purpose on the 10th of February.

The end of that period did not seek the qualifications of the candidate. It sought to determine the worth of the candidate in the eyes of the University. It sought to determine the worthy and the unworthy, the fit and the unfit for the degree. It was a test of character, of ability, of fitness for the honour of the University.

The Lyceum Club.
There are so many brave women in Adelaide now that if they feel the absolute necessity of the Lyceum Club, it will be met by a community of hitched ideas that will go astray in the wrong direction. The council to meet on Monday, and to report to the members.

Mr. T. Heathcote, the latest Rhodes Scholar.

Mr. T. Heathcote, the latest Rhodes Scholar, was welcomed to the University by the Vice-Chancellor and the President of the University, and was presented with a copy of the University Calendar.

Eldridge Conservatorium.

The Eldridge Conservatorium of Music is situated in the Eldridge Building, and is under the management of Mr. J. Eldridge. It is open to the public every day from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m., and is well attended.

The Solar Eclipse.

The total solar eclipse of the sun will be visible from the University campus on the 3rd of August. The University will hold a special session at 3 p.m. to observe the eclipse. All students are requested to attend.
