Mr. Peter Waite's Death

In Sydney. The death of Mr. Peter Waite occurred suddenly at his residence in East Sydney, on Friday last, at the age of 69 years. Mr. Waite was a member of the New South Wales Legislative Assembly for many years, and was well known for his ability and integrity. He was also a prominent figure in the agricultural world, having been associated with the New South Wales Agricultural and Horticultural Society for many years. He was a great advocate of theosophy, and was a member of the Drapers' Company.

Mr. Waite was born in Sydney in 1835, and was the son of Mr. Thomas Waite, a well-known solicitor. He was educated at the Sydney University, and was called to the bar in 1857. He was a member of the Legislative Assembly from 1861 to 1871, and was a member of the Legislative Council from 1871 to 1873.

Mr. Waite's death was unexpected, and was a great loss to the community. He was a man of great ability, and his death is a great loss to the agricultural world.

Peter Waite, the late member for the Agricultural and Horticultural Society, and a prominent figure in theosophical circles, died suddenly on Friday last, at the age of 69 years.

Mr. Waite was born in Sydney in 1835, and was the son of Mr. Thomas Waite, a well-known solicitor. He was educated at the Sydney University, and was called to the bar in 1857. He was a member of the Legislative Assembly from 1861 to 1871, and was a member of the Legislative Council from 1871 to 1873.

Mr. Waite was a great advocate of theosophy, and was a member of the Drapers' Company.

Mr. Waite's death was unexpected, and was a great loss to the community. He was a man of great ability, and his death is a great loss to the agricultural world.