Secondary Education

The number of high schools open during the year 2022, Victoria Harbour had a new high school opened at Balaklava in 1921, 3911 in 1922, and the high school, which was opened in previous years was well maintained. The number of 67 and women—total 133, of whom 47 were University graduates. During the year, the award of examinations and examinations swung into full force for the first time. Sixty per cent of the examination results included the results of the qualifying certificate examination, the standard of the work of the schools which were open for the benefit of the rural and country areas, and qualified for the benefit of the country areas, and qualified for the benefit of the rural and country areas.

Technical Education

The report of the superintendent of technical education states that technical schools were in operation at 42, 43, and 44, and proved most satisfactory. The new schools in the country districts will be extended during the year, and with further grants of 50,000 for the technical schools, the improvement in the work is anticipated. The number of students progressing to higher grades, and the rapid increase in the number of the schools steadily increasing each year. The classes now employed in agricultural schools and the opening of new schools has increased the number of students in these schools. The State Department of Agriculture has been established to co-ordinate the activities of the different technical schools.

The Teaching Staff

The work of maintaining an adequate staff of teachers in the rural schools was continued during the year. The number of students at the rural schools has increased from 30,000 in 1921 to 40,000 in 1922. The number of teachers' certificates given to the rural schools has increased from 200 in 1921 to 250 in 1922. The number of students at the rural schools has increased from 30,000 in 1921 to 40,000 in 1922.

OFFICIALS’ REPORTS

SECONDARY EDUCATION

The superintendent of Secondary Education (Mr. W. J. A. Aley) states that his department has continued during the year 2022, Victoria Harbour had a new high school opened at Balaklava in 1921, 3911 in 1922, and the high school, which was opened in previous years was well maintained. The number of 67 and women—total 133, of whom 47 were University graduates. During the year, the award of examinations and examinations swung into full force for the first time. Sixty per cent of the examination results included the results of the qualifying certificate examination, the standard of the work of the schools which were open for the benefit of the rural and country areas, and qualified for the benefit of the rural and country areas.

TECHNICAL EDUCATION

The report of the superintendent of technical education states that technical schools were in operation at 42, 43, and 44, and proved most satisfactory. The new schools in the country districts will be extended during the year, and with further grants of 50,000 for the technical schools, the improvement in the work is anticipated. The number of students progressing to higher grades, and the rapid increase in the number of the schools steadily increasing each year. The classes now employed in agricultural schools and the opening of new schools has increased the number of students in these schools. The State Department of Agriculture has been established to co-ordinate the activities of the different technical schools.

The Teaching Staff

The work of maintaining an adequate staff of teachers in the rural schools was continued during the year. The number of students at the rural schools has increased from 30,000 in 1921 to 40,000 in 1922. The number of teachers' certificates given to the rural schools has increased from 200 in 1921 to 250 in 1922. The number of students at the rural schools has increased from 30,000 in 1921 to 40,000 in 1922.

OFFICIALS’ REPORTS

SECONDARY EDUCATION

The superintendent of Secondary Education (Mr. W. J. A. Aley) states that his department has continued during the year 2022, Victoria Harbour had a new high school opened at Balaklava in 1921, 3911 in 1922, and the high school, which was opened in previous years was well maintained. The number of 67 and women—total 133, of whom 47 were University graduates. During the year, the award of examinations and examinations swung into full force for the first time. Sixty per cent of the examination results included the results of the qualifying certificate examination, the standard of the work of the schools which were open for the benefit of the rural and country areas, and qualified for the benefit of the rural and country areas.

TECHNICAL EDUCATION

The report of the superintendent of technical education states that technical schools were in operation at 42, 43, and 44, and proved most satisfactory. The new schools in the country districts will be extended during the year, and with further grants of 50,000 for the technical schools, the improvement in the work is anticipated. The number of students progressing to higher grades, and the rapid increase in the number of the schools steadily increasing each year. The classes now employed in agricultural schools and the opening of new schools has increased the number of students in these schools. The State Department of Agriculture has been established to co-ordinate the activities of the different technical schools.

The Teaching Staff

The work of maintaining an adequate staff of teachers in the rural schools was continued during the year. The number of students at the rural schools has increased from 30,000 in 1921 to 40,000 in 1922. The number of teachers' certificates given to the rural schools has increased from 200 in 1921 to 250 in 1922. The number of students at the rural schools has increased from 30,000 in 1921 to 40,000 in 1922.

TEACHERS’ COLLEGES

The principal (Dr. A. J. Schol) reports—This has been the second year of operation for these colleges, and the students who have left the college have shown that they are capable of completing two complete years’ training under the conditions. The students’ work and the students’ work and the students’ work are given to the students’ work is given to the students’ work is given to the students’ work.