EUGENE L. SCHOLAR.

MR. D. J. R. SUMMER APPOINTED.

A meeting of the Rhodes Scholarship Committee was held at Government House on Saturday morning, and Mr. Donald James Robert Summer, a medical student at the University, was selected as the scholar for 1925.

He excelled the Governor-General Sir Tom Godfrey, Lord Northesk, and other members of the committee present were the Chief Justice (Sir Eric Beatty, M.C.), Sir James Young, Sir James Henderson and Dame Margery Naylor, Hon. R. J. Rollett and B. H. Thompson. As usual, the meeting was presided over by the Governor-General, H.R.H. The Duke of York, M.A. There were five candidates.

The scholarship, valued at £300 per annum, has been awarded in each of the past two years, and is a great encouragement to students from the University who have overcome the difficulties of their early education.

At the close of the meeting, a dinner was given in the residence of the Governor-General, where all the members of the committee were present.

Mr. D. J. R. Summer, of Mount Torrens, was selected as the scholar for 1925.

DEAD HEROES.

The McGauchoy Request.

Sydney, December 11.

The news of the death of two Australian heroes in the Spanish Civil War has caused great concern throughout the country.

Mr. and Mrs. McGauchoy, who are both of the Australian Army, were killed in action during the recent battle of the Ebro River.

Mr. McGauchoy, a well-known figure in the Australian Army, was a gallant officer who had served with distinction in both the First and Second World Wars.

His wife, Mrs. McGauchoy, was a dedicated nurse who had served in the Australian Red Cross for many years.

The couple had been married for 20 years and had two children.

The McGauchoys were among the many Australian servicemen who have lost their lives in the Spanish Civil War.
