THE MESSIAH.

Unique Performance Promised.

Unusual interest attaches to the performance of "The Messiah," to be given in the Adelaide Exhibition Building on Saturday. The Bach Society and the South Australian Orchestra have been rehearsed under the direction of Mr. W. H. Foote, the conductor, who describes it as a "typical English" Mass in the style of the excellent Tramway Band, promises to yield a result that will be welcome to the public.

Mr. Foote has a large and varied musical experience. He has conducted, for example, the orchestra at Hanover, and has been associated with music in many parts of the world. In Cape Town, he supplied the orchestra for the South African Exhibition, and in London, he has conducted the orchestra for the South African Exhibition. He has also conducted the orchestra for the South African Exhibition, and in London, he has conducted the orchestra for the South African Exhibition.

The performance will take place at 8 p.m., and will be followed by a reception in the Exhibition Hall. The concert will be conducted by Mr. W. H. Foote, with a large and varied musical experience. He has conducted, for example, the orchestra at Hanover, and has been associated with music in many parts of the world. In Cape Town, he supplied the orchestra for the South African Exhibition, and in London, he has conducted the orchestra for the South African Exhibition. He has also conducted the orchestra for the South African Exhibition, and in London, he has conducted the orchestra for the South African Exhibition.

The concert will be conducted by Mr. W. H. Foote, with a large and varied musical experience. He has conducted, for example, the orchestra at Hanover, and has been associated with music in many parts of the world. In Cape Town, he supplied the orchestra for the South African Exhibition, and in London, he has conducted the orchestra for the South African Exhibition. He has also conducted the orchestra for the South African Exhibition, and in London, he has conducted the orchestra for the South African Exhibition.