THE FAME OF TENNYSON.

THIRD LECTURE BY DR. MACKAIL.

A large and deeply interested audience was present at the Broome Hall, School of Mines, on Tuesday evening last, when the third lecture of the series on "The Life of Tennyson," by Dr. J. M. Mackail, formerly professor of poetry at the University of Oxford, was delivered. For the benefit of those who have not heard of Dr. Mackail, he is a well-known bibliographer, and has written many valuable works.

The lecture was delivered in the usual manner, with great clarity and force, and was listened to with the greatest interest. The subject of the lecture was "The Life of Tennyson," and it was well received by the audience.

The lecture was followed by a discussion, during which the audience expressed their appreciation of the lecture. The meeting was considered a great success, and a vote of thanks was passed to the lecturer.

A NIGHT WITH TENNYSON.

PROFESSOR MACKAIL'S EDUCATIONAL LECTURE.

The Broome Hall at the Adelaide University was crowded on Tuesday evening last, when the final lecture of the series on poetry, delivered by Professor J. W. Mackail, was given. The lecture was attended by a large number of students and others.

The lecture was delivered in a most interesting manner, and was well received by the audience. The lecturer spoke of the life of Tennyson, and of his work, with great force and eloquence. The audience expressed their appreciation of the lecture by a vote of thanks.

The lecture was followed by a discussion, during which the audience expressed their appreciation of the lecture. The meeting was considered a great success, and a vote of thanks was passed to the lecturer.