CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

A NEW PRESIDENT.

Mr. W. J. Hill (vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce) was on Friday elected president in the absence of Mr. A. C. C. Grimes, who was in London as a delegate to the Imperial Conference. Mr. Hill was born in Adelaide on August 14, 1879. He is a son of Mr. John Riley Hill, who was a member of the Council of the Chamber of Commerce, and was educated at Prince Alfred College. He was afterwards in the employ of the Colonial Bank of Australia, and is now the manager of the branch at Port Pirie. He has been a member of the Chamber of Commerce for a number of years, and has been associated with the bank in South Australia. Mr. Hill is 28 years old, and was elected by acclamation.

Mr. W. J. Hill.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

A NEW PRESIDENT.

Mr. W. J. Hill (vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce) was on Friday elected president in the absence of Mr. A. C. C. Grimes, who was in London as a delegate to the Imperial Conference. Mr. Hill was born in Adelaide on August 14, 1879. He is a son of Mr. John Riley Hill, who was a member of the Council of the Chamber of Commerce, and was educated at Prince Alfred College. He was afterwards in the employ of the Colonial Bank of Australia, and is now the manager of the branch at Port Pirie. He has been a member of the Chamber of Commerce for a number of years, and has been associated with the bank in South Australia. Mr. Hill is 28 years old, and was elected by acclamation.

Mr. A. C. C. Grimes, President of the Adelaide Chamber of Commerce, is unavailable for the Australian State to work.