THE CHURCH AND LAYMEN.

ELOQUENT APPEAL BY PROFESSOR STEWART.

Professor J. McKellar Stewart, of the Adelaide University, made a stir on the occasion of the University’s Mansion House dinner on Saturday night when he delivered an address on "The Church and Laymen." The address was given in the form of an eloquent appeal, and its subject matter was timely and appropriate. Professor Stewart, who is well known for his great knowledge of the Bible and his ability to make the Word of God come alive for his audience, spoke with great passion and fervor. His address was well received by the audience, who were deeply moved by his words.

THE UNIVERSITY OF ADELAIDE.

THE RESIDENTIAL COLLEGE.

In connection with the establishment of the new residential college, the University of Adelaide, the general committee appointed a special committee to consider the matter. The committee's report was presented to the University on May 29, 1922, and was adopted. The report recommended the establishment of a residential college for the University of Adelaide.
