RETIREMENT.

A tribute to Mr. Hodge.

Mr. Regional Joseph Coombes, L.L.D., who was admitted by the Chief Justice as Mr. Justice Pobly and Mrs. Justice Angus Parsons on Saturday, as a practising attorney of this Court, is the son of Mr. Joseph Coombes, F.D.S., and is 21 years of age. He was educated at Gawler, and entered the University of Adelaide. Mr. Coombes was the first graduate of the University. He is an enthusiastic student of music, and has been for the last three years, he has been captain of the cricket team, and a member of the football committee. He is also a member of the University debating society and a member of the University tennis club. He is an equal match for any other young man in the University, and he is a great asset to the University.

In consequence of the resignation of two members of the board of examiners of law students, the Chief Justice, who presides over the University, has written: 'I write to announce that Herbert Mayo and G. C. Llewellyn have been appointed to the vacancy which has occurred in the board of examiners. The University has received a valuable service from these gentlemen, and their appointment is considered most satisfactory.'

The University has thus been able to continue its work without any interruption, and the students are thus able to continue their studies without any hindrance.

The University has received a valuable service from these gentlemen, and their appointment is considered most satisfactory. The University has thus been able to continue its work without any interruption, and the students are thus able to continue their studies without any hindrance.
