The DELINQUENT CHILD.

By Constance M. Dayton, M.A.

"Crime is not a cause but a symptom," was the conclusion of Dr. Cyril Burt in his opening address to a joint meeting of the Educational and Psychological Association at Leeds. This conclusion he had based on the study of 200 cases of juvenile delinquency which had been brought to his attention by various medical, educational, and social workers. They fall into four groups—the heredi-

The South Australian Orchestra, on tour.

The instrumented Royal (Sir Frank Dy

Mr. S. W. Savery.

Mr. W. W. Savery.

GRADUATES’ ASSOCIATION.

Our Sydney correspondent states that

The DELINQUENT CHILD.

By Constance M. Dayton, M.A.

"Crime is not a cause but a symptom," was the conclusion of Dr. Cyril Burt in his opening address to a joint meeting of the Educational and Psychological Association at Leeds. This conclusion he had based on the study of 200 cases of juvenile delinquency which had been brought to his attention by various medical, educational, and social workers. They fall into four groups—the heredi-

The South Australian Orchestra, on tour.

The instrumented Royal (Sir Frank Dy

Mr. W. W. Savery.

GRADUATES’ ASSOCIATION.

Our Sydney correspondent states that

The DELINQUENT CHILD.

By Constance M. Dayton, M.A.

"Crime is not a cause but a symptom," was the conclusion of Dr. Cyril Burt in his opening address to a joint meeting of the Educational and Psychological Association at Leeds. This conclusion he had based on the study of 200 cases of juvenile delinquency which had been brought to his attention by various medical, educational, and social workers. They fall into four groups—the heredi-

The South Australian Orchestra, on tour.

The instrumented Royal (Sir Frank Dy

Mr. W. W. Savery.

GRADUATES’ ASSOCIATION.

Our Sydney correspondent states that

The DELINQUENT CHILD.

By Constance M. Dayton, M.A.

"Crime is not a cause but a symptom," was the conclusion of Dr. Cyril Burt in his opening address to a joint meeting of the Educational and Psychological Association at Leeds. This conclusion he had based on the study of 200 cases of juvenile delinquency which had been brought to his attention by various medical, educational, and social workers. They fall into four groups—the heredi-

The South Australian Orchestra, on tour.

The instrumented Royal (Sir Frank Dy

Mr. W. W. Savery.

GRADUATES’ ASSOCIATION.

Our Sydney correspondent states that

The DELINQUENT CHILD.

By Constance M. Dayton, M.A.

"Crime is not a cause but a symptom," was the conclusion of Dr. Cyril Burt in his opening address to a joint meeting of the Educational and Psychological Association at Leeds. This conclusion he had based on the study of 200 cases of juvenile delinquency which had been brought to his attention by various medical, educational, and social workers. They fall into four groups—the heredi-

The South Australian Orchestra, on tour.

The instrumented Royal (Sir Frank Dy

Mr. W. W. Savery.

GRADUATES’ ASSOCIATION.

Our Sydney correspondent states that

The DELINQUENT CHILD.

By Constance M. Dayton, M.A.

"Crime is not a cause but a symptom," was the conclusion of Dr. Cyril Burt in his opening address to a joint meeting of the Educational and Psychological Association at Leeds. This conclusion he had based on the study of 200 cases of juvenile delinquency which had been brought to his attention by various medical, educational, and social workers. They fall into four groups—the heredi-

The South Australian Orchestra, on tour.

The instrumented Royal (Sir Frank Dy

Mr. W. W. Savery.

GRADUATES’ ASSOCIATION.

Our Sydney correspondent states that

The DELINQUENT CHILD.

By Constance M. Dayton, M.A.

"Crime is not a cause but a symptom," was the conclusion of Dr. Cyril Burt in his opening address to a joint meeting of the Educational and Psychological Association at Leeds. This conclusion he had based on the study of 200 cases of juvenile delinquency which had been brought to his attention by various medical, educational, and social workers. They fall into four groups—the heredi-

The South Australian Orchestra, on tour.

The instrumented Royal (Sir Frank Dy

Mr. W. W. Savery.