CINEMA PICTURES.

Effect on the Juvenile Mind.

Some interesting theories were advanced by speakers at the Prince of Wales Theatre, Adelaide University, on Tuesday night, in the course of a discussion under the auspices of the University Graduate Association, on "The Social and Educational Aspects of the cinema."

Professor Harold Davies, an official member of the Adelaide Rotary Club, which is said to number among its members all the leading citizens of the city, and also a member of the Adelaide Evening Post, said that the Adelaide Rotary Club had been discussing the subject of cinema for some time, and that the club had decided to hold a meeting on the subject, in order to get the opinions of the members of the club, and to have a discussion on the subject.

He said that the club had decided to hold a meeting on the subject, in order to get the opinions of the members of the club, and to have a discussion on the subject.

"Conservatorium Professor."

Professor K. Harold Davies is an official member of the Adelaide Rotary Club, which is said to number among its members all the leading citizens of the city, and also a member of the Adelaide Evening Post, said that the Adelaide Rotary Club had been discussing the subject of cinema for some time, and that the club had decided to hold a meeting on the subject, in order to get the opinions of the members of the club, and to have a discussion on the subject.

Prof. Harold Davies

Born at Oswestry, England, on July 13, 1891, after having studied grammar school and art at the University of Oxford, he graduated M.A., at the University of Oxford, in 1906, taking honours honors each year. In 1915, he was appointed holder of a Professor of Music at the University of Oxford. In 1919, he was appointed head of the Music Department of the University of Oxford. His successful musical activities are numerous. He is a founder and conductor of the Bach Society, and a member of the Grand Lodge of the University of Oxford. For many years the Professor was a member of the University of Oxford, and was instrumental in the formation of the South Australian Orchestra, which was established in 1906.

"Obstructive Effect on Children."

Professor K. Harold Davies, who is a member of the debate on the subject of cinema, said that the club had decided to hold a meeting on the subject, in order to get the opinions of the members of the club, and to have a discussion on the subject.

"Making the Esplanade."

By C. C. Owen-Smyth, C.M.G., I.S.O.

"North Terrace Esplanade" means the space between the government housing scheme, which is the Government of South Australia, and the government of the Commonwealth, which is the government of the Commonwealth of Australia. The government of the Commonwealth of Australia is the government of the Commonwealth of Australia, and the government of the Commonwealth of Australia is the government of the Commonwealth of Australia.

"History of North Terrace."

By C. C. Owen-Smyth, C.M.G., I.S.O.

The government of the Commonwealth of Australia is the government of the Commonwealth of Australia, and the government of the Commonwealth of Australia is the government of the Commonwealth of Australia.