Miss Kentish took her degree in arts at the University of Sydney, and, after graduating in arts, she proceeded to London, where she qualified in the Y.W.C.A. She went to Sydney to work in the Y.W.C.A. at chill, was appointed as the first secretary in the Y.W.C.A. at Adelaide, and has been working in the association ever since. AUSTRALIAN HARDWOODS

Neglected Industry

Lately the idea has been made for the wide use of Australian hardwoods for flooring and interior fittings. This wood is suitable for general use and, as its appearance is similar to that of other hardwoods, it would be of great advantage to Australian industry. It is a hard, strong timber, and is not affected by water. It is a valuable timber, and its use in floors would be a great advantage to the industry. The idea is that Australian hardwoods are not used as much as they ought to be. It is suggested that a law should be passed to encourage the use of Australian hardwoods in floors, and that a grant should be made to those who use Australian hardwoods in their floors. This would be a great advantage to the industry, as it would encourage the use of Australian hardwoods in floors, and would also benefit the industry.
